Number 42.

There will be a picnic at the foot of Stoney Hill, on Flat Creek pike, to-day.

Not a drunken man was seen on our streets last Sunday. Cause, the saloons were all closed up.

The L. & N. Railroad will sell tickets to-day, between all stations, for one fare, good until Monday night.

Mr. John Reis is putting up a neat frame cottage on the lot on Holmes street recently purchased by him of the Sharp heirs.

Mr. C. E. James has concluded to put up a residence on his farm, out on the Devil's Hollow pike, and locate there permanently.

Mr. P. F. Smith had a valuable horse killed by a freight train Tuesday evening. It was in Mr. W. T. Dudley's pasture at the time.

The game of base ball Wednesday between the Versailles and Frankfort Clubs was a very one-sided affair, and resulted in a score of 31 to 7.

Drs. Smith & Brown have dissolved partnership and Dr. Brown has removed his office to the Mansion House building, No. 236 Main street.

Simon Perry, charged with assaulting James Brown with an axe last Saturday night, was assessed five dollars and costs by Judge R. A. Thomson last Thursday.

Mr. J. B. Fears, formerly a teacher in the common schools of this county, has been called upon to become a candidate for County Superintendent of Common Schools.

Smith Johnson, colored, of this city, leaves this morning for Chicago, Ill., to accept the position of Janitor of the Board of Trade in that city. Smith is an industrious, reliable young man and we are glad to hear of his good fortune.

The party who has been keeping the little peanut stand on the southeast corner of Main and St. Clair streets has rented the room in the Old Mansion House corner lately occupied by Messrs. Evans Bros., and will open a fruit and vegetable store there.

The Sunday-school of the First Presbyterian Church will go down the river on the Hornet this morning to Capt. Sam Steele's farm, where they will have a picnic and return to-night; the Baptist Sunday-school will go out to the K. M. L. and have a good time in the woods, while the other Sunday-schools will try and keep cool in the city.

The Sunday law was strictly enforced last Sunday against the saloons and other places where liquor is sold in this city, and there was not a case of violation of the law reported. To-morrow every business house in the city will be required to close up, except drug stores, and they will only be allowed to sell medicines.

The closing concert of Prof. Wayland Grahm's music class took place at the Opera House on Tuesday evening and was attended by a large audience. The scholars all acquitted themselves well, and the music was first class, many pieces being enquired several times. On Thursday evening an entertainment was given by Prof. Grahm at the Opera House, consisting of the opera of the Bohemian Girl and Trial by Jury, in which many of his scholars took part and were assisted by the young ladies and gentlemen of the city. The hall was crowded with a large and appreciative audience, who were delighted with the performance. It was one of the best amateur entertainments ever given in this city, and all who were present are loud in their praise of the performance of all those who took leading parts.

To-day the Lagrange Base Ball Club will visit our city and this afternoon at 3 o'clock, at Capital park, they will play the Frankfort Club. The Lagrange boys have lost but one game this season, the Frankforts, as reorganized, have lost none, so all who attend may expect to see a good game hotly contested from the beginning.

There is great complaint just now about men and boys going in bathing in the new reservoir built by the city. In view of the fact that the water now supplied our citizens by the Water Company comes in part from this pool it strikes us that the proper authorities should put a stop to it. It may be that the water cannot be contaminated by the young swimmers, but then a person cannot drink it with much pleasure knowing that it has been made use of for bathing purposes.

FRANKFORT, KY., July 3, 1885.

Prof. Wayland Grahm: We, the undersigned citizens, having witnessed with the greatest of pleasure the opera of "Bohemian Girl and Trial by Jury," request a repitition of the same at your earliest convenience.

We regard it certainly as the finest amateur performance ever put upon the stage in this city, and we assure you the audience will be such as will justify the repetition.

MANY CITIZENS.

A Grateful Mother.

My little boy when only two years old had what was said to be a stroke of paralysis, affecting his right limb, and for many months he could not walk. His health became exceedingly feeble. No one dreamed that he would ever recover from his misfortune, and hope had left my own heart of ever rearing him up to manhood. Finally he commenced to use his limbs a little, but the ankle joint had become impotent, and in attempting to walk his foot would turn to one side, and the ankle bone would touch the floor. With that anguish which only a mother can feel, I first realized he was to be a cripple all his life. With the aid of steel ankle braces he was enabled to get around the house. His health was completely shattered, and with an aching heart and gravest apprehension I watched the livid expression of countenance and blotches on his face that would come and go. What a widow mother's affection could do was mine, but with little permanent benefit. Being assured by friends that Swift's Specific would do him good, through their kindness I secured several bottles. I commenced to give it to my child about the first of last July (1884). The first bottle acted like a charm upon his system. After taking the second bottle his complexion cleared, and he began to improve. He threw away his braces several months ago, and now walks better than he ever did with it. The ankle joint has regained its strength and the foot its proper position, and the large lump on the ankle, caused by friction and unnatural use, has disappeared. He is now in his sixth year; his health is as good and he is as lively as any child of his age. He has taken six bottles of S. S. S. only, but the change has been wonderful, and everybody who had seen him before he commenced to take the medicine are astonished at his appearance now. For the first time since his illness I feel in my heart the hope of rearing him. With devout gratitude to Him who gave him, I bless the day I ever heard of this remedy. It has saved to me my child.

Catarth in the Head.

For years I have been the victim of catarth, one of the most treacherous and fatal of all diseases. After examining the remedies that came to my knowledge, I was attracted by the advertisement of S. S. S., and determined to give it a fair trial. To my infinite surprise and the astonishment of many sympathizing friends, I have been thoroughly cured. As to the virtue of Swift's Specific, I can find no words or language to express my praise thereof. If it had not been for S. S. S., I would not be able to write even this much.

Resolutions of Respect

The following resolutions were unanimously adopted by the Franklin County Teachers' Association at the regular meeting Saturday, June 20th:

WHEREAS, Chas. L. Quire has, by the dispensation of an All-wise Providence, been removed from our midst; therefore,

Resolved, by the Teachers of Franklin County, That we greatly deplore his loss and deeply regret his untimely death.

Resolved, That as a teacher he was competent, active and conscientious, and in his death the community has been deprived of a faithful and useful instructor.

Resolved, That, cut down as he was in the bloom of life and of usefulness, he will be greatly missed in all the relations of life, and a host of friends and relatives fully recognize this melancholy fact.

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be published in the newspapers of Franklin County.

DEAR NEPHEW: Since you received the sad news from your aunt Polly in regard to the disappearance of the vid Talnagge Phelps, it is my painful duty to inform you that poor little orphan George L. Phelps is missing also. He was last seen at Benson Depot. It would be impossible for me to describe his appearance; he weighs 45 or 50 pounds.

Do you know anything about my wife, Polly Vocum? If so please address your uncle, ZEKE VOCUM, P. S.—If you hear anything about George impart the news as gently as possible. Don't shock his numerous friends by letting them hear of his safety.

A Mean Old General Routed.

Old "General Debility" has been put to flight in Arkansas, with happy results. From Brinkley, from Webb City, and from Walnut Ridge, Mo., P. R. Anderson, E. M. Taylor and E. S. Plinbeck respectively write that they were all afflicted with general debility, and received solid benefit from Brown's Iron Bitters. This is pleasant to know, not only for Arkansas people, but for all sections of the country. General Debility has counted victims by the thousand. For sale everywhere.

GEORGE A. LEWIS.
Editor and Publisher.

FRANKFORT, JULY 4, 1885.

The Louisville Amateurs and Frankfort Clubs will play a match game of ball at Capital Park Monday afternoon at 8 o'clock.

The last water pipe was laid out on the Versailles pike Wednesday afternoon, and it only remains now to lay the pipe across the river and put in the fire hydrants on the South Side when the contractors for laying the pipe will be through.

The Judge of the Circuit Court last week granted absolute divorces to Susan Rankin from James Rankin and Alma J. Talbott from John Talbott. In the latter case the custody of the children was awarded to the mother.

Mrs. Owen T. Richardson obtained a judgment in the Circuit Court Saturday in the National Mutual Life Insurance Company, in which the life of her late husband was insured for $4,000, for $2,300 with interest. The company was a new one at the time the policy was taken out, and his claim had not lapsed out at the time of his death.

The new postal law went into effect Wednesday and now letter postage is only two cents for each ounce, but every letter of less weight will require a two cent stamp. A person who takes a newspaper from the office and then refuses to pay for it is made guilty of theft and punishable for the same, and newspaper publishers are allowed to send their papers through the mails for one cent per pound instead of two as heretofore.

The Governor, on Monday, ordered out three companies of the Second Regiment of Kentucky State Guard, one from Richmond, one from Mt. Sterling, and one from Winchester, to go to Morehead, in Rowan county, for the purpose of suppressing lawlessness in that section. Dr. Alvin Duval, Surgeon of the Second Regiment, Lieutenant Frank Graham, Regimental Quartermaster, El Grant, Quartermaster's Clerk, and John Haly, Jr., Hospital Steward, left this city Monday night for the seat of war.

The game of base ball Monday afternoon between the Emmets, of Louisville, and the Frankforts, resulted in a victory for the home club by a score of 17 to 15. The home team were weak behind the bat, fished moderately well, but did very well at the bat. The pitching of Merchants was the best feature of the game. On Tuesday the same clubs met again when the home boys won by a score of 3 to 2. George Hammond came up from Pleasantville to catch for the Frankforts and strengthened the team considerably at that point. The game was very prettily played, scores being made only in three innings and none of them earned.

Mr. Augustus Robinson has bought of Mrs. America Lewis the frame cottage on Benson street, Belle Point, and has moved into same.

FRANKFORT ROUNDABOUT.

Let every body go to Capital Park this afternoon to see the Lagrange and Frankfort base ball game.

Antioch

T. Hunter left Thursday for Lexington to attend the S. T. A.

The thermometer registered 100 at the toll gate one day last week.

An infant child of William Poivre was buried at Antioch on the 29th.

We are pleased to state that Miss Mattie Meist is still improving from her late sickness, typhoid pneumonia.

Our old friend, James May, who has been quite sick for several days, we are glad to say is able to be about again.

Mr. James Russell's children have a tame fox of the red species, that will follow them like a dog and is as playful as a kitten; he is very fond of sugar, candy or anything sweet.

Miss Mary L. Glone, who has been attending the Danville Deaf Mute Institute, is now at home spending the vacation. She will return to the Institute in September.

Mrs. B. F. Firestone, who has been visiting friends and relatives in Cincinnati for several weeks, returned home last Monday week, accompanied by her sister, Mrs. Daniels.

There was a large crowd at Antioch last Sunday to hear Rev. T. E. Utterback, who preached a very interesting sermon. Indeed, surprising numbers of friends, there were several from Frankfort and Belle Point in the crowd.

We have a young lady friend that can catch more fish and larger ones, than any one we know of, but you should just hear what she says and see how excited she gets when she gets a bite! It almost makes us wish we were a fish.

Mrs. Martha Watson has had a large barn and stable built on her home place. It is the most convenient and best built of the kind in this neighborhood, and is a credit to the gentleman who did the work, Messrs. Powell Moore and Bunk Updike. It stands at the terminus of the Watson and Updike turnpike.

Clampitt-Woodhouse.

Dr. Louis H. Clampitt, of Roodhouse, Ill., and Miss Lena C. Watson, of this city, were quietly married yesterday afternoon, at the residence of the bride's parents, on Preston street, near Chestnut. It was one of the prettiest "home weddings" of the season.

At the appointed hour, 5 o'clock, the bridal party appeared. The bride, in a white wedding march was played by Miss Jennie Giles. Preceding the bride and groom came Mr. Wm. W. Venable, his brother, Mr. Harney, and Mr. Douglas W. Robinson with Miss Kate Meriwether. As Rev. Dr. W. C. Young performed the ceremony in his graceful but impressive manner, the happy couple stood under a floral yoke suspended from the ceiling, while the attendants took their positions on either side. The bride was tastefully attired in a gown of some colored satin. The marriage was witnessed by a few relatives and immediate friends. An informal reception was tendered by an elegant lunch, and at 7:40 o'clock Dr. and Mrs. Clampitt took the train for their Illinois home. A great number of valuable and beautiful gifts were presented to the bride, and an abundance of congratulations and good wishes followed them to their future place of residence.

The bride is the youngest daughter of Mr. James R. Watson, and is a young lady of unusual personal beauty. Her amiable and attractive character has won her a host of warm friends. The groom graduated with honors at the Hospital College of Medicine here a year ago. He is now a leading physician of Roodhouse, where he is engaged for the Chicago & Alton railroad. Dr. and Mrs. Clampitt will first go to Chicago, and will then visit the groom's parents at Jacksonville, Ill., where a reception will be tendered them. Next week they will reach Roodhouse, and will immediately occupy the handsomely furnished home which has been prepared for them. —Louisville Post, July 1.

A SINGULAR BOOK.

Scintillating with Sarcasm and Brilliant with Truth.

New York Correspondence American Rural Home.

Chap. I. "Has Malaria!" goes to Europe.
Chap. II. "Overworked!" goes to Europe.
Chap. III. "Has Rheumatism!" goes to Europe.
Chap. IV. Has a row with his Doctor!

The above chapters, Mr. Editor, I find in a book recently published by an anonymous author. I have read a deal of sarcasm in my day but I never read anything equal the sarcasm herein contained. I suspect the experience portrayed is a personal one, in short, the author intimates as much on page 31. Let me give you a synopsis:

"Malaria," as it states, is the cloak with which the author covers up a multitude of ill feelings, which they do not understand, and do not much care to investigate. It is also a cover for such diseases they cannot cure. When they advise their patient to travel or that he has overworked and needs rest and is probably suffering from Malaria, it is a confession of ignorance or of inability. The patient goes abroad. The change is a tonic and for a time he feels better. Comes home. Fleets appetite, frequent headaches, severe colds, cramps, sleeplessness, irritability, tired feelings, and general unfitness for business are succeeded in due time by alarming attacks of rheumatism which fills about his body regardless of all human feelings. It is muscular—in his back. Articular—in his joints. Inflammatory, myelitic, in his arms and legs. He is hearted. Now off he goes to the Springs. The doctor sends him there to get well; at the same time he does not really care on his hands!

That would hurt his business. Better for a few days. Returns. After a while neuralgia transfixes him. He cannot cannot breathe, has pneumonia; cannot walk, cannot sleep on his left side; is fretful; very nervous and irritable; is pale and flabby; has frequent chills and fevers; everything about him seems wrong becomes suspicious; musters up strength and denials to know what is killing him! "Great heaven!" he cries, "why have I kept me so long in ignorance?"

"Because," said the doctor, "I read your fate five years ago. I thought best to keep you comfortable and ignorant of the facts."

He dismisses his doctor, but too late! His fortune has all gone to fees.

The other day a well known Wall street banker said to me "It is really astonishing how general British disease is becoming. Many of my personal friends are now dying of it. But it is not incurable I am certain, for my nephew was recently cured when his physicians said recovery was impossible. The case seems to me to be a wonderful one." This gentleman formerly represented his government in a foreign country. He knows, appreciates and declares the value of that preparation, because his nephew, who is a son of Danish Vice-Consul Schmidt, was pronounced incurable when the remedy, Warner's safe cure, was begun. "Yes," said his father, "I was skeptical but since taking that remedy the boy is well."

I regret to note that ex-President Arthur is said to be a victim to this terrible disease. He ought to live, but the probabilities are that since authorized remedies can not cure him, his physicians will not advise him to save his life, as so many thousands have done by the use of Warner's safe cure which Gen. Christiansen, at Drexel, Morgan & Co. told me to regard "as a wonderful remedy."

Well I expect the hero of the book cured himself by the same means. The internal evidence points very strongly to this conclusion.

I cannot close my notice of this book better than by quoting his advice to his readers:

"If, my friend, you have such an experience as I have portrayed, do not put your trust in physicians to the exclusion of other remedial agencies. They have no monopoly over disease and I personally know that many of them are so very 'conscientious' that they would far prefer that their patients should go to heaven direct from their powerless hands than that they should be saved by the use of any 'unauthorized' means."

And that the author's condemnation is too true, how many thousands duped, and yet rescued, as he was, can personally testify?
